

BARRETT REJOICES AT FLEET'S VOYAGE

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 28.—The enormous gaud of the cruise of Admiral Evans' armada will do toward promoting friendly relations between the United States and Latin America was dwelt on in an address before the American Political Science Association, in session here today, by John Barrett, director general of the International Bureau of American Republics and former Minister to Argentina, Colombia, and Panama.

"We are anxiously quoting the opinion of Japanese papers and statesmen," he said, "but we have failed to note that our sister republics are giving more attention to the fleet's movements than are those of our Oriental neighbor."

"Countries like Brazil, Argentina, Chile, and Peru are not only welcoming the coming of the ships and applauding this vast and unique naval undertaking, but are planning to give the fleet receptions that will be unsurpassed in courtly gallantry and enthusiasm by any that may be accorded later either on our own Pacific coast or in the ports of the Orient."
